The Contenders

braveheart41 - An original founding father of the Clueless Crew and so correspondingly clueless. As such he will almost definitely have eco problems, and create an army if you're lucky. Only really a contender so we can use his Twitch account. Odds = 10:1

TheLawfulVirus - Another founding father of the clueless Crew yet clueless in different ways. We can promise you an elaborate boom and full eco but unlikely to produce an army. Will definitely cry and blame the civ matchups. Odds = 6:1

Snackbar - All the way from snowy Finland Snacky is sure to bring his A-game. If he's not too busy towering the locals (deer) then you can expect monks, relics and more monks. Odds = 10:1.

BrendanGleeson - He may not say a lot but he more than makes up for this in his AoE skillz. A graphic designer from Germany but as you can tell he didn't make this document. Odds 5:1

TheCount_ - the 3rd German in the group. No one really knows what he sounds like cos his mic is so shocking. More likely to ask questions about religion than to cast the games he's watching. Good all round player and a solid contender for a place in the final. Odds 4:1

theHand - The most recent addition to the crew. His accent is a breath of fresh air in a discord server full of Europeans #BREXIT. The Hand only qualified as a Clueless contender because he has over 3000 games in the 1v1 lobby but still can't build a TC in Nomad games. The Tipsters favourite for the win, it'll take some serious practice for someone to beat him. Odds 2:1

SexyMillipede9 - Brother to TheVirus and creator of the world's first DautMill. Sexy is the Wildcard in this Cucumber Cup. No one really knows his 1v1 ability but its safe to say that he'll be amusing to watch. Odds 14:1

mud_ - our official 8th player and newest recruit to the Clueless clan. Mud can most commonly be found somewhere between his room and his kitchen trying desperately to find adequate internet. Odds 6:1

Please note these odds were created purely for fun and may not represent real probabilities. Place your bets by emailing braveheart41@cluclesscrew.com, all winnings will be paid by our Sponsor – Brave's Hotel Business.
